

Party for Socialism and Liberation First Los Angeles Area Public Meeting

Imperialist War, Capitalist Crisis & the Need for Revolutionary Change

Saturday August 21, 2 pm

Southern California Library for Social Studies & Research
6120 South Vermont, Los Angeles 90044

 Snacks and Beverages Provided*

National leaders and organizers in the Party for Socialism and Liberation will participate in this inaugural meeting, including:

Brian Becker, New York

Caneisha Mills, Washington, DC

Gloria La Riva, San Francisco

Muna Coobtee, Los Angeles

Preston Wood, Los Angeles

The Party for Socialism and Liberation, founded in July 2004, believes there is only one alternative to capitalism: socialism. Capitalism is an enemy of workers and all oppressed people. We need revolutionary change. The capitalist class of bosses, bankers and landlords has all the political and economic power in society, completely dominating the mass media. Join us in building a new socialist movement to challenge the power of the corporate and banking elite and the Military-Industrial Complex.

Party for Socialism and Liberation

5419 Hollywood Blvd, Ste C188, Los Angeles, CA (323) 960-4345

www.socialismandliberation.org la@socialismandliberation.org