

Freedom at the Park

On May 1, 2007 during a peaceful protest at MacArthur park. LAPD violated its authority and committed gross acts of brutality against a peaceful assembly and against members of press. Even the chief of Police, Could not excuse the unprofessional actions of those assigned to serve the community present at MacArthur park. This Weekend, May 5-6, the citizens of Los Angeles and those who support the right to peacefully assemble as stated in the US Constitution's First Amendment, will unite and speak in greater numbers. Those that bastardize the role of public servant will be held accountable to the people.
