

ON THE SPOT:

Talking to the Candidates on Peace and Security

Birddogging Workshops

June 9th, Los Angeles, 10am-1pm

June 16th, Bay Area, 10am-1pm

TRACK THE CANDIDATES

The next president will be responsible of our future foreign policy. With the California primaries taking center stage this upcoming election, we must take the lead in making sure the candidates take a strong stance on peace and security concerns.

We need you to join us as a bird-dogging volunteer, so that every time a candidate appears in California, he or she has to answer questions about ending the war in Iraq, getting rid of nuclear weapons, or increasing U.S. leadership for peace in the world.

ASK THE QUESTIONS

Asking good questions requires good training – it's not difficult, but it helps to learn some tricks of the trade. Please join us for bird-dogging trainings in June, and learn how you can impact this critical election. Through role-plays, discussion of issues, and tips on crafting a good question, we'll give you the skills you need to get the candidates on record.

JOIN US!

LOS ANGELES

June 9th, 2007 10 am-1 pm
Peace Action West Office
3550 West 6th St.
Suite 320 (Between Mariposa and Normandie)
Los Angeles, CA 90020

BAY AREA

June 16, 2007 10 am-1 pm
Temescal Branch Library*
5205 Telegraph Ave
Oakland, CA 94609

*The Oakland Public Library does not advocate or endorse the viewpoints of meetings or meeting room users.

For more information visit:

www.peaceactionwest.org/category/birddogging
To RSVP or if you have any questions please
contact Axel at:
(213)-388-0525 Ext. 107
awoolfolk@peaceactionwest.org

ON THE SPOT:

Talking to the Candidates on Peace and Security

Birddogging Workshops

June 9th, Los Angeles, 10am-1pm

June 16th, Bay Area, 10am-1pm

TRACK THE CANDIDATES

The next president will be responsible of our future foreign policy. With the California primaries taking center stage this upcoming election, we must take the lead in making sure the candidates take a strong stance on peace and security concerns.

We need you to join us as a bird-dogging volunteer, so that every time a candidate appears in California, he or she has to answer questions about ending the war in Iraq, getting rid of nuclear weapons, or increasing U.S. leadership for peace in the world.

ASK THE QUESTIONS

Asking good questions requires good training – it's not difficult, but it helps to learn some tricks of the trade. Please join us for bird-dogging trainings in June, and learn how you can impact this critical election. Through role-plays, discussion of issues, and tips on crafting a good question, we'll give you the skills you need to get the candidates on record.

JOIN US!

LOS ANGELES

June 9th, 2007 10 am-1 pm
Peace Action West Office
3550 West 6th St.
Suite 320 (Between Mariposa and Normandie)
Los Angeles, CA 90020

BAY AREA

June 16, 2007 10 am-1 pm
Temescal Branch Library*
5205 Telegraph Ave
Oakland, CA 94609

*The Oakland Public Library does not advocate or endorse the viewpoints of meetings or meeting room users.

For more information visit:

www.peaceactionwest.org/category/birddogging
To RSVP or if you have any questions please
contact Axel at:
(213)-388-0525 Ext. 107
awoolfolk@peaceactionwest.org

