Edwards-Obama: Go Edwama
Paul Rogat Loeb 05 Oct 2007 16:16 GMT

Barack Obama and John Edwards are competing against each other. Suppose each pledged to focus on their commonalities, and on their real differences with Clinton's priorities and stands. What if each pledged to offer the Vice Presidency to the other if they won?

Barack Obama and John Edwards are competing against each other, including some recent sniping. But more than anything, both are trying to stop Hillary Clinton's momentum, and erode her lead in the polls. Suppose each pledged to focus between now and the primaries on their commonalities, and on their real differences with Clinton's priorities and stands. Even more audaciously, what if each pledged to offer the Vice Presidency to the other if they won? This just might be enough to shift the election. Personally, I'm backing Edwards because of all the leading candidates, I think he's taken the most courageous recent stands on issues from trade and the Iraq war to global warming and domestic and global poverty. But when young voters get excited about Obama, or I see his vast numbers of grassroots donors, I get excited about the possibility that he might bring a new generation into politics, and combine his undeniable charisma with a vision of justice. When I see someone wearing an Obama T-shirt, my spirits lift. Even though I'm backing Edwards, I feel a sense of kindred cause. I've actually gotten a similar sense of shared hopes in conversations with supporters of both Obama and Edwards. And when I suggest the two running as a team, people respond with excitement. They see them together as powerful standard-bearers. But for now at least, Obama and Edwards are dividing the bulk of the opposition to Clinton, which makes it far more likely that she'll become the nominee. That's a bad outcome for two key reasons: Clinton is likely to so mobilize the Republican base and demoralize many Democrats (particularly that broad section of the base that's angry about the war) as to jeopardize not only her election, but also other Democrats running for state and federal offices throughout the country. In a recent Pew poll, she had both higher unfavorable and lower favorable ratings than either Obama or Edwards. Yet even if Clinton does prevail, there's a good chance that she'll be led less by principle than by her own desire for power, as witnessed by her refusal to apologize for her Iraq War vote (and her resistance of a withdrawal timeline until just recently), her support of the recent Kyl-Lieberman amendment that opens a door to war with Iran, and an initial health care proposal so cumbersome and compromised it collapsed of its own weight (with a little help from the insurance and drug companies). Not to mention her mixed record of votes on the highly regressive bankruptcy bill, her cozying up to Rupert Murdoch, and her sitting on the Wal-Mart board for years. Clinton also spent $36 million last November, the most in the country, on a Senate campaign she could have won in her pajamas, while Democratic candidates were desperately scrambling for cash that she could have transferred, and while both Edwards and Obama were pointedly not raising money for their own campaigns, just for others. But the reasons to choose Edwards/Obama or Obama/Edwards aren't just about an aversion to Clinton, but about the possibilities of shifting American politics. Both campaigns are anchored in genuine grassroots energy, as opposed to wealthy donors and Beltway consultants. Both offer the chance to draw new citizens into politics, for a vision that breaks from the automatic deferral to corporate interests characteristic not only of the Bush and Reagan administrations, but of many of Bill Clinton's policies as well. Where Hillary Clinton abdicated chance after chance to lead the opposition to Bush's destructive initiatives (especially before Bush's polls began to plummet), both Edwards and Obama have repeatedly spoken out (though I wish Obama had more so of late) and worked to rally citizens against them. Edwards/Obama or Obama/Edwards would draw--in the campaign, and, I believe, in the White House--on Obama's years as a community organizer and experience living abroad and crossing every conceivable cultural line. And on Edwards's gut knowledge of what it means to grow up poor, his willingness to successfully take on some of the biggest corporations in America, and his years since 2004 in traveling the country and listening on issues of poverty. Plus they have eight years of combined Senate experience, most importantly in the degree to which both of them have traveled across the country and genuinely listened to the concerns and struggles of ordinary Americans. Compared to the Republican field, their combined strengths will represent a powerful and hopeful choice. Clinton is leading right now, through name recognition, sympathetic national media, and nostalgia for the years when we didn't have Bush in the White House, not to mention a tightly controlled campaign that avoids controversial stands. Most Democrats still favor other candidates, but that majority is fragmented, making it hard for any individual candidate to get traction. For Edwards and Obama to join together would radically change that dynamic. It would let them speak in a common voice, and talk about how much Clinton's vision has been shaped by the pay-to-play nature of Washington's conventional politics. It would allow them to raise the real issues that we face, more fiercely than before. It would let them talk about the kind of administration they could create together. How could this ticket come to pass? By their talking with each other, to be sure, but also maybe by enough ordinary citizens embracing the idea. I think it's time to initiate a Draft Edwama online petition to begin a groundswell. Perhaps local activists in both their campaigns need to start a dialogue with each other. And maybe, just maybe, the two candidates will sense the potential, begin the conversations themselves, and in the process change the dynamics of this election. Alvin Josph Hansen, Trustee

UCC felony Jusgment Creditor
Kidnap, False imprisonment, embezzlement ID theft terror, Murder Victim
1983 to 2007

A third on my once tranquil life has truly been an incredible journey. One ordained by God to expose beyond belief irreformable evil of men.

Its time for HILLARY and BILL to pay for their crimes against the American people and humanity as he gets his dick sucked in the Oval office.

No evil attorneys can help them now. They are all in it.

The content of PennibancPost was so truthfull so condemning posting 210 UCC felony Judgment Liens against The UC Treasury Social security and even Hillary Clinton for her role in the ID theft and trust embezzlement crime since 1993 that is was necessary to risk killing the website and Alvin Joseph Hansen.

On September 25, 2007 a Judgment Lien was filed against and seizing all assets of TYPEPAD SIX APART INC.FOR CRIMINAL CONTEMPT OF THE CHANCERY COURT and Murder of Alvin Hansen.

On October 4, 2007 Mr Hansen filed a WireTransfer grant to Indymedia's bank account andawarding all Typepad assets, and $10,000,000,000.00 Billion USD

On the same date a Grant was filed to CARE 2 of $50,000,000,000.00 Billion for discretionary distribution to all humanitarian causes in which they are active.

More funds may be requested and granted as pennibanctrust needs such organizations ththrough whom to distribute the money.

The efforts to suppress viewers to our website became accute as we were ony recieving 25-30 viewers per day and were No 1 on Google and all search engines.

Hillary Clinton was watching our site like a hawk and when I posted the history and proof of her and Bills Summons in the USDC Delaware settlement Contract in 1993 and her involvement with the attorneys who forged trust UCC files in delaware and california in 1993 to profit I also posted all the proof records of her murders from Vincent Foster and my family and Trust beneficiarys Including My Wife,Mother and the Stanghellini family beneficiaries.

I also had posted the Judgments for the Murders and arrest warrants and they were to graphic to be posted in public
At the same time people I contracted with to construct a replica site under a new domain name www. pennibancpost.net" were all threatened and paid to abandon this project as Typepad was suppressing the viewers.

So the decision was made to kill the website and to kill me to protect Hillary and George Bush.

"The U.S Treasury Money Fund" and Social security were served again by P.I and Fax with another demmand for return of all embezzled Social security pension funds 1994-2007 and the $3.2 trillion debt.

Another action is being filed in the Queens Chancery Court for criminal contempt and Habeas Corpus
Against many new felons and demanding Treble damages be taken $6.6 Trillion

We have appealed to Care & and Indymenia for help to restore our websites and possible move to Ireland for security from this evil country. AND HILLARY

CHANCERY COURT QUEENS BENCH TO RECOVER SS EMBEZZLED FOR 14 YEARS.

Alvin Joseph Hansen UCC felony Judgment Creditor 03 Oct 2007 03:12 GMT

U.S Courts refuse to enforce Judgments for 27 years

POSTING SOCIAL SECURITY CRIME REPORT ON WEBSITE MARCH 26 2007

SS Roseville fax 916-746-0795

DECLARATION OF ALVIN JOSEPH HANSEN

At 12:30 PM this 26th day of March I received a telephone call from a woman who claimed she was with the Social Security office in Roseville, Ca. to whom I reported theft of my Identity and Kidnap since October 8, 1997 and theft of my Social security pension benefits for the past 14 years.

She was very rude and when asked refused to give her name, and proceeded to ask me questions. I asked by what authority she questioned me, my name, SS # Place of Birth and Mothers maiden name Information if she was with SS she already had.

I told her if she was with SS she would know of Mr Benetto's call from that office last Monday saying they were going to pay the Judgment and would be aware of the letter served on them appointing Bill Thomson as Co Payee that was acknowledged by Mr Benetto's call She refused to call Mr Thomson.

She refused to give her name and telephone No. I believe she was calling from The Brandi law Firm in San Francisco where I called and left my No this morning.

I told her that I was going to report her call to Social Security and if she was with Roseville SS she would know Mr Benetto who called me last Monday and said the check was in the mail. And of the many fax served records and demands for our March check that had not been mailed. We have not received any letter of explanation since January. So I know she had to be with the Brandi Law Firm lawyers office or CHP officer Scott Millspaugh.

I asked if she was familiar with the case, and why after mailing the January 2007 check they did not recover the remaining embezzled money from Bank Atlantic or Dyana Hesse, and prosecute the crimes against the trust and myself. She did not reply. She said she decided to "freeze" Block my benefits because of an alleged arrest warrant in Medford, Oregon

I told her I have over the last 10 years SS records show I was charges over 26 times with false crimes, and that I hold open arrest warrants for the Medford D.A. on Penni's murder in 2002 and that it was another vicious threat on my life and openly retaliatory. I told her of many threats by debtor/felon CHP officer Scott Millspaugh, and she may have been in his office.

I asked her to identify herself and who put her up to calling me, and if she was aware of the California Penal Code making threatening telephone calls, Kidnap, and ID theft Social Security Theft and threatening a elder victim constitute major felonies, and she did not answer. I also reminded her that aiding and abeting a crime makes one an accomplice.

I told her Bill Thomson would contact Mr Benetto to pick up my checks at the Roseville office.

Alvin Joseph Hansen, Bill Thomson CEO
 CC/ Mr Benetto, Debra Bowen. SS, Scott Millspaught CHP debtor felon
 Mark Huddleston, Medford D.A. Debtor felon, Dyana Hesse, Unnamed caller.
 I believe she was with the Brandi Lawfirm 800-481-1615

I am a member of the secret class action lawsuit against Bank of America, U.S. Bank, The Court and Social Security. With priority Claim

Treasury urges Social Security cuts

Treasury: Fix requires benefit changes, tax increases, which Bush opposes

The Associated Press

Updated: 3:39 p.m. PT Sept 24, 2007

WASHINGTON - The Bush administration said in a new report Monday that Social Security is facing a $13.6 trillion shortfall and that delaying needed reforms is not fair to younger workers.

A report issued by the Treasury Department said that some combination of benefit cuts and tax increases will need to be considered to permanently fix the funding shortfall. But White House officials stressed that President Bush remains opposed to raising taxes.

The Treasury report put the cost of the gap between what Social Security is expected to need to pay out in benefits and what it will raise in payroll taxes in coming years at $13.6 trillion.

It said delaying necessary changes reduces the number of people available to share in the burden of those changes and is unfair to younger workers. "Not taking action is thus unfair to future generations. This is a significant cost of delay," the report said.

In another key finding, the report said: "Social Security can be made permanently solvent only by reducing the present value of scheduled benefits and/or increasing the present value of scheduled tax increases."

The paper went on to say: "Other changes to the program might be desirable, but only these changes can restore solvency permanently."

While the language of the Treasury report seemed to indicate that the administration would consider raising taxes along with reducing benefits as a way to deal with the funding shortfall, the White House was quick to reject that possibility.

"The president is not advocating for tax increases or benefit cuts," said White House spokesman Tony Fratto.

"Everyone understands that the choices available in the current structure of Social Security, that absent reform, tax increases and benefit cuts are inevitable," Fratto said. "That's why the president believes it makes more sense to reform the program sooner than later."

Treasury Secretary Henry Paulson, Bush's point person on Social Security reform, said he has had a number of discussions with members of Congress from both parties over the issue of fixing the problems in Social Security with the looming retirement of 78 million baby boomers.

"While differences over personal accounts and taxes dominate the public debate over this issue, in my conversations I found that there are many other things on which people agree," Paulson said in a statement accompanying the issues report.

"By focusing on areas of agreement, I hope these issue briefs will narrow the divide and spur further discussion of reforms," Paulson said.

Heavy emphasis on Social Security reform

Bush had hoped to make Social Security reform the top domestic priority of his second term. Bush put forward a Social Security reform plan in 2005 that focused on creation of private accounts for younger workers but that proposal never came up for a vote in Congress, with Democrats heavily opposed and few Republicans embracing the idea.

While Democrats have fought to protect current benefit levels, Republicans have been adamant that taxes should not be raised to cover the Social Security shortfall.

Phil Swagel, Treasury's assistant secretary for economic policy, told reporters that the plan was to issue about six issue briefs on Social Security over the next three months. But he said it was "unclear" at the moment whether the papers would lead to a new push to get an overhaul program through Congress next year.

Many believe such an effort would be highly unlikely to gain success in 2008, a presidential election year
