

LA Social Forum Kick-Off Party!!

A Social Forum for the local Los Angeles community is currently being organized for April, 2008. Please join us Saturday, Nov. 3 for our “Kick-Off Party,” an evening of multicultural celebration including live music, spoken word artists, and rallying cries from local activists! This event is the opportunity to get informed, get involved, and network with local activist groups on a wide range of campaigns and causes crucial to Los Angeles and the World. THINK GLOBALLY, *ACT LOCALLY!!

WHAT: LA SoFo Kick-Off Party

WHEN: Saturday, Nov. 3, 7pm – 10pm

WHERE: Pilipino Workers’ Center
153 Glendale Blvd
LA 90026

WHO: Activist groups, organizations, individuals and agencies that are working to improve the Life and Environment of the Los Angeles community.

WHY: Because the people United cannot be divided!! It’s time for LA activist groups to come together to network and exchange experiences and ideas of best practice – at the LA Social Forum!!! Get involved, get informed as we organize this event to bring the LA activist community together!

Since its inception at Porto Alegre in 2001, global, regional, and local Social Fora have taken the grassroots world by storm! These gatherings provide meeting spaces where progressive social movements, networks, non-profits, and other civil society organizations get together to exchange and share experiences, strategies and ideas of best practice.

Suggested Donation $10 at the door. No one turned away!!!
