

A Collaborative Project Between:
Habi-Arts and the Center for Labor Research and Education, UCLA

Photography & Community Justice Workshop

The workshop will provide an introduction to the technical know-how needed to operate a film or digital camera. The workshop is free and open to UCLA students as well as labor and community organizations. Participants are encouraged to bring their own camera (film or digital). Participants will have the opportunity to exhibit their photography at a community exhibit scheduled at the Downtown Labor Center. The workshop is limited to 10 participants.
