RE: ALVIN HANSEN Case No 93 02935-C
Jackson County,

Dear Gary,

I hope all these papers are not unduly confusing. The relevant events are that there was a case filed in Delaware when Jackson County and others were served with the Subpoena. That case is still active. Even if everything on the Subpoena was not correctly done, this should be a SPECIFIC INTENT crime. I believe that this case should be dismissed. I am urging Mr. Hansen to serve all parties involved in the frivolous suit. Jackson County had filed a frivolous criminal complaint against him that lasted ten months before being dismissed in February of 1993. I am urging Mr. Hansen to file suit on that miscarriage of justice.

Dear Mr. Hansen,

This letter is to confirm that I am initiating the process to substitute in as your attorney of record in order to perfect the record. I understand that you are In Pro Per, In Forma Pauperis. I also understand that there are other Plaintiffs. At this point in time, I intend to substitute in as your attorney only. If any of the other plaintiffs want to retain me as their attorney, I will determine if that would constitute a conflict of interest or not. If there is a conflict of interest, I will remain your attorney ONLY.

At this point in time, I intend to become attorney of record for Case No. 93-292 filed in the Delaware USDC. This case was assigned a judge for all proceedings on July 28, 1993.

Yours truly,

ROBERT D. SALISBURY

Re: Alvin Hansen, et al. v. Bank of America, et al.
No. 88-681 MLS (E.D. Cal.)

Dear Mr. Hansen: Re USDC 93-292 JJC.

Your letters of May 20, 1993, June 28, 1993, and June 30, 1993, to the President were referred to me for response. You have requested assistance in collecting a judgment which you state was entered against the defendants in the above-referenced action.

While I understand your concern for justice, I am unable to offer any assistance in collecting the referenced judgment. The Department of Justice represents only the interests of the United States in litigation. It does not provide representation or assistance to private litigants such as you and your co-plaintiff in this case.

Additionally, it appears that several of the named defendants and "principal debtors" in the referenced action were either federal agencies or federal employees represented by the Department of Justice. Thus, there would clearly be a conflict of interest if the Department were now to assist plaintiffs in this litigation.

I regret that we are unable to be of further assistance at this time.

Cordially yours,

Frank W. Hunger
Assistant Attorney General

Dear Mr. Hansen:

Thank you for your recent letter regarding your difficulties with three federal judges and a U.S. Attorney.

The Judiciary Committee does not investigate initial complaints against federal judges or U.S. Attorneys. The committee also does not intervene in pending court cases or request that a judge hear or rehear a particular case. If you would like to file a formal complaint against a federal judge, you should write to the clerk of the appellate court. The court clerk you should write to regarding each of the three judges you mention in your letter is:

Ms. Cathy A. Catterson
Clerk
U.S. Court of Appeals for the Ninth Circuit
U.S. Courthouse, Room 126
7th and Mission Streets
San Francisco, California 94103

If you wish to file a complaint against a U.S. Attorney, you should write to:

I believe it is good strategy, and in a sense your duty to file a complaint against the various illegal lawyers and judges with the Ethics Board and the Judicial Commission. I believe we should do that, not because we expect results from them, but that some day we will be able to show the systematic encourage of the illegality by the brotherhood of lawyers and judges.

Concerning Roy Bashaw, assuming your information is correct, I would start off simply with a complaint on matters as to the August 21, 1987 letter. I assume you have the Oregon Rules of Professional Conduct. If you don't, I would gladly assist you on filing them.

I enclose a copy of the materials already collected. There are a number of other persons and I simply don't get the time to work on these complaints.

Dear Mr. Hansen:

This letter will serve to acknowledge receipt of the fax material which we received in our office April 24, 1989.

You have again requested that we act to subrogate on your behalf to collect on your behalf for a default judgment you received involving Alvin Hansen versus the Honorable Judges Edward Leavy, Choy, et al.

In answer to your letter, I again refer you to prior correspondence which I have forwarded in letters dated February 28, 1989 and January 27, 1989. St. Paul Fire & Marine cannot act as a debt collection agency in collecting any monies owed on a default judgment in which you were a plaintiff. Therefore, I continue to respectfully decline to cover this loss for expenses and other fees or charges you incur to collect this default judgment. In addition, we do not cover this loss under your Homeowners policy for reasons given in prior correspondence.

Tax protester Hansen sought by police

Medford resident Alvin Hansen calls himself an "attorney in fact" although he has no license to practice law in Oregon.

Federal authorities call him a hard-core tax protester who once owed more than $400,000 in back taxes.

But Medford police have a new title for 69-year-old Hansen — they're calling him a wanted man.

Hansen was charged with negotiating a bad check and second-degree criminal trespass in January. The charge stemmed from a November 2000 incident at a Medford business.

In April, Hansen pleaded not guilty to the charges in Jackson County Circuit Court.

Judge Raymond White issued a bench warrant when Hansen failed to appear for a court date in August.

According to Medford police Lt. Mike Moran, Hansen remains at large.

Hansen was convicted in 1985 of failing to file tax returns. In 1997, he was sentenced to 15 months in prison for stealing his car that had been seized by the Internal Revenue Service.

Although he wasn't licensed to practice law, Hansen represented brothers Paul and Frank Sarkozy in April during a highly publicized case. The local men were evicted roughly seven years after Paul Sarkozy stopped paying property taxes on his home off Hillcrest Road.

Court records show Hansen has been named as the defendant in numerous civil cases.

Anyone with information regarding Hansen's whereabouts is urged to contact Medford police at 774-2250.

MEMORANDUM AND DECLARATION OF
Alvin Hansen, Secured Party Creditor, Trustee
March 20, 2001

I, Alvin Hansen, Declare, and verify by proof, attachments, theft of Trust, and personal mail by Judgment debtors, Medford Postmaster, James Foucalt, and Jackson County Sheriff, Medford Police Department, District Attorney, and Jacobson Jewett, Thierolf & Dickey, etal;

That, on March 16, 2001 accompanied by Mr Richard B. Scholes, a Trust beneficiary, I again visited the Postal substation on Biddle Road to recover all stolen, misdelivered, withheld mail, and was told "no mail is being delivered to you", "Nor has any been recieved", by a clerk in an arrogant insolent manner.

On Monday, March 19, 2001, I called the Provost Marshall, Major, Theresa Peterson (503)945-3985 and reported this ongoing unchecked felony, Obstruction of Court Writs, and IRS Imposter Fraud Audit. She stated that she had sent me a letter in December, and was unable to determine what happened to my stolen mail, and to check with the Seargeant at the Armory at 1701 S. Pacific Hyw. where my mail had been transfered in December.

On this date, March 20, 2001 I visited, and recieved from Sargeant, "Josh" the two pieces of mail attached.

All stolen mail since transfered to ABVA Co Trustee, Melvin E. Soll Esq. March 8, 1999, remains stolen, in spite and contempt for Judgments taken for restitution July 13, October 19, 1999.

All debtors/ felons and officials continue criminal obstruction of Justice, Trust operations, return of stolen property, and criminal obstruction of Tax returns, and IRS imposter fraud audit.
