California Department of Justice Hid Millions in Contracts
By MICHAEL R. BLOOD, Associated Press Writer
Published: January 29, 2007

(AP Photo/Steve Yeater)
California State Treasurer Bill Lockyer, speaks after taking the oath of office during a ceremony in Sacramento, Calif., Monday, Jan. 8, 2007.

LOS ANGELES (AP) - The California Department of Justice improperly concealed tens of millions of dollars worth of contracts with lobbyists, consultants, legal firms—even couriers and parking garages—in violation of its own confidentiality rules, an Associated Press investigation has found.

An internal agency review, conducted at AP's request, found information on scores of contracts, many of them no-bid, was erroneously labeled "confidential" and omitted from computerized state records, shielding it from public view.

The department says no open-records laws were broken and there was no attempt to intentionally hide spending or protect favored contractors from public scrutiny. Still, as a result of AP's investigation, the agency is reviewing the way it identifies and withholds confidential contracts listed in those records.

All the contracts reviewed were issued between 2003 and last year, when Bill Lockyer, a Democrat, was attorney general and headed the Justice Department. Jerry Brown now has the job; Lockyer was elected

Subject: UCC-1 lease

Date: Mon, 24 May 2004 19:35:36 -0700

Dear Al;

It has been a busy day and hopefully a very productive one.

I am negotiating the potential lease of U$D 1B of UCC-1s with an option for additional leases of equal or greater value.

Lets hope this works out to a quick and clean consummation of this agreement, I will keep you informed as things progress.

Best regards,

Carley

Re: Matters of Alvin Hansen

Dear Alvin:

It certainly was pleasant speaking with you and meeting your brother. Enclosed please find five (5) blank copies of UCC-3 Form for filingas well as a copy of the time stamped document filed in San Francisco. I am very much looking forward to getting together to move ahead with the enforcement of Judgments against all Debtors.

We certainly have a tremendous amount of work to do. I suspect that all of the money will make you happy, but the vindication will give you great satisfaction.

Best Regards,

Melvin E. Soll
