

Protest Foreclosures and Evictions!

America has enough homeless people!

No more bailouts to the same greedy corporations who started this nightmare!

Join us on Friday, October 24, in front of four banks in Hemet, to protest the greedy lenders' and landlords' practices that are making families homeless every day through foreclosures and evictions. Innocent American families are the real victims of this crisis.

Over a million families have lost their homes already, and 8-9000 more enter foreclosure EVERY SINGLE DAY, but all the US government can think of is spending billions of dollars of OUR money to bail out more of the greedy banks and executives who caused this nightmare to begin with. The American people have had enough!

Come out and make your voice heard at the corner of E Florida Ave and N Girard St., Hemet, CA, outside Citibank, between 5:00 pm and 7:00 pm.

(Note that there are three Citibanks in Hemet. Our protest will be held outside the Citibank just east of San Jacinto Ave.)
Feel free to bring your own creative signs! We will also provide signs for those who need them.

If you have lost your home to foreclosure, we want to hear your story. Come, and we'll document your experience to share on Youtube, to help put faces to the facts and figures the American government is ignoring!

Contact Jennaya at contraredadas@gmail.com if you have questions or to support and let us know you are coming. Please distribute this information as widely as you can!
