

The ACLU of Southern California in partnership with The LA County Coalition for Death Penalty Alternatives is providing a free and open to the public

Anti-Death Penalty Activist Training

Become an effective grassroots organizer and join the movement to end the death penalty in California! Learn some fundamentals of community organizing and how to get involved in the statewide campaign to reduce death sentences and end capital punishment. Interactive workshops will provide concrete skills and tools like:

- How to talk about the death penalty and answer tough questions
- Social networking & e-activism
- Campus organizing
- Key facts about California's death penalty to persuade your audience
- Public speaking
- Lobbying public officials

Hosted by the ACLU of the Claremont Colleges
Saturday, February 26, 10am to 3pm

Bauer Forum, Claremont McKenna College
500 E 9th Street Claremont CA 91711

Includes guest speakers and FREE LUNCH!

Please RSVP to James Clark, jclark@aclu-sc.org, 213-977-5258
For more information visit www.EndDeathPenaltyLA.org/training.html