

Fighting for their lives:

Queer & Transgender Resistance in Honduras

Drag queens, gays of color and lesbians led the 1969 Stonewall Rebellion that launched the modern U.S. lesbian, gay, bisexual and transgender movement, and ignited a global fight for queer and trans liberation. In Honduras, the Movement for Sexual Diversity in Resistance (MDR) demands justice for the 91 LGBT people murdered since U.S.-backed coup that ousted elected president Manuel Zelaya in 2009. Lesbian immigrant activist, Karla Alegria, and queer historian, Suyapa Portillo, will discuss LGBTTI movement organizing in Honduras. Learn what you can do to help.

Thursday, June 27 • 7p.m.

Home-cooked summer supper • 6:30 p.m.
with veggie options • $8 donation
