

THE UNIVERSITY OF PHILOSOPHICAL RESEARCH PRESENTS:

The Living Wisdom Concert Series - Music to Nourish the Soul

Curated by Yuval Ron

SUN, FEBRUARY 1ST, 2015, 4:00 PM - 6:00 PM:

THE HEALING POWER OF SOUND

Healing Sounds of Qigong, Gong Bath meditation and a unique concert exploring the ancient healing wisdom of the East.

With Yuval Ron - Oud

Master Bansuri flute player Radha Prasad
and Gong master Kenneth Goff.

Yuval Ron is an internationally renowned World Music artist, composer, educator, peace activist and record producer. Graduating Cum Laude as a Film Scoring Major at Berklee College of Music in Boston, he has continuously researched various ethnic musical traditions and spiritual paths worldwide. Among his many honors, he composed the songs and score for the Oscar winning film West Bank Story in 2007, was the featured artist in the Gala Concert for the Dalai Lama's initiative Seeds of Compassion in the Seattle Opera Hall in 2008, and received commissions from the Getty Center, Los Angeles International Airport, Japan-America Theater, American Repertory Ballet and more. His awards include the Los Angeles Treasures Award in 2004 and prestigious grants from the National Endowment for the Arts, American Composers Forum, California Council for the Humanities and the Rockefeller Foundation. He is an author of the book Divine Attunement: Music as a Path to Wisdom published by Oracle Institute Press.

For more information: <http://www.yuvalronmusic.com>

Master artist Radha Prasad was born and raised in Northern India, where he first taught himself to play the flute as a child. After hearing the music of Pandit Hariprasad Chaurasia, India's most skilled flutist, he moved to Bombay and began 18 years of rigorous and comprehensive training in the typical guru-disciple tradition of India. The training provided him with broad knowledge of Indian classical and folk music and he received a Master of Arts in Music from Pandit Chaurasia's school, the Vrindaban Flute Institute. Prasad has toured India, the United States and Europe with his renowned teacher. Since moving to Los Angeles, he opened his own school, teaching Indian classical instrumental and vocal music.

For more information: <http://www.cmpusoft.com/veenapani/radhaprasad.html>

Kenneth Goff is an accomplished Kirtan percussionist, drummer, vocalist, meditation guide, and gong master. Goff's path to sound healing and healing touch includes earning his Yoga Alliance RYT-200 yoga teacher certification, as well as a degree in Asian bodywork from Pacific College of Oriental Medicine (PCOM). His work in the field of energy healing includes Reiki Master credentials and courses in Healing Touch. With the use of fundamental notes aligned to the spiritual eye, throat, and sacral chakras, his three Chinese Feng (wind) gongs offer the listener an opportunity to align and calibrate their etheric energy.

Admission: $20

Location:

THE UNIVERSITY OF
PHILOSOPHICAL RESEARCH,
3910 Los Feliz Boulevard
Los Angeles, California
90027

Contact the University:

323.663.2167 ext.112 or
artsector@uprs.edu