Americans United for Separation of Church & State, Orange County Chapter

Presents: Hussam Ayloush, Executive Director of CAIR-LA

Fighting Islamophobia in 2017

Saturday, June 17th at 1:45 pm

Community Room, Irvine Ranch Water District¹
15500 Sand Canyon Ave. (at Waterworks), Irvine, CA 92618

This presentation will focus on the many challenges faced by the Islamic community from the Muslim Ban and immigration issues, fighting hate crimes to understanding the road ahead from a practical perspective. A related challenge is how the Muslim community responds to the anti-Islamic hysteria from the population at large as well as from administration officials and in so doing promotes the best values of our nation and educates America on Islam and diversity.

Hussam Ayloush is the Executive Director of CAIR (Council on American-Islamic Relations) for the greater Los Angeles area. He holds a B.S. degree in Aerospace Engineering and an MBA. He has appeared on local, national and international media outlets. Mr. Ayloush is a regular speaker at many California colleges, schools, Islamic centers, churches, conferences, and universities. He is an active member of various interfaith groups promoting pluralism, dialogue, understanding and cooperation among America's and our world's diverse faith communities. He is a member of the West Coast Muslim-Catholic

Dialogue and the Abrahamic Faith Peacemaking Initiative.

Please join us for this important discussion and your opportunity to meet and talk with someone who deals with the national debate on church/state separation every day.

This event is open to the public. There is no charge to attend and registration is not required. There is plenty of free parking.
