After speaking, Heather will be on hand to sign her new book, The Birth of Hathor.

All Hathor and Birth Connection merchandise will also be on sale as a benefit for the greatest non-profit now forming: The Greater Los Angeles Coalition for Midwifery.

GLACM is a non-profit organization committed to supporting and promoting the role of midwifery in Southern California. They provide free midwifery referrals, information on the benefits of midwifery, political and consumer support to local midwives and hope to offer scholarships to those families who want a midwife but can't afford to have one.
