Southern California Library 2006 Annual Event Gala Reception and Multimedia Exhibit Thursday, May 18, 2006

Reception/Exhibit Opening: 7 P.M.
L.A. River Center
570 West Avenue 26, Los Angeles

The Southern California Library, founded over 40 years ago, collects, preserves, and provides access to the history of community change in Los Angeles. The event will kick off the Library's exhibit on housing issues in Los Angeles and honor housing and civil liberties activist Frank Wilkinson.

Honoring:

FRANK WILKINSON

A key figure in L.A. history, Frank Wilkinson died earlier this year at age 91 after half a century as a national civil liberties leader and housing activist.

OPENING OF HOUSING EXHIBIT

The event kicks off a traveling exhibit on housing featuring historical materials from the Library's collections, including materials drawn from Frank's papers; photography; artwork; and multimedia.

CULTURE CLASH

Culture Clash will read selections from their two world premieres Zorro in Hell and Water & Power and a tribute to their hero Frank Wilkinson.

OLLIN

Ollin will perform their unique blend of East L.A./ traditional Mexican music
