Present

Building the Cuba, Venezuela, Colombia, Mexico, Canada, and U.S. Labor Conference

Saturday, November 25

3:30 pm

at the IAC office

5274 W Pico Blvd #203

Los Angeles

In Cuba, children are the highest priority.

Hear: Ignacio Meneses,

co-chair U.S./Cuba Labor Exchange; co-chair National Network on Cuba, Latinos United of Michigan

Ignacio Meneses is a long-time trade unionist with deep roots in the trade union movement and in the immigrant-rights struggle in the U.S.

He has organized countless trips of workers from throughout the U.S. and Canada to see first-hand the gains by workers in Cuba, and the ongoing struggles of all workers in the Americas that must daily confront the neo-liberal policies of the U.S. in their countries.

Meneses will outline how you can get involved and participate in the upcoming third annual U.S./Cuba Labor Exchange conference in Tijuana, Mexico, Dec. 8, 9 and 10.

In Tijuana you will meet with trade unionists from Cuba, Colombia, Venezuela, Oaxaca, Mexico City, cities throughout the U.S. and Canada.
