

WHO CARES WHO CARES WHO CARES

People who think we need to spend more on affordable housing.

People who oppose expanded ICE detention & deportations.

People who voted to support drug treatment rather than prison time for nonviolent drug users.

People who don't want to see another round of fee (tuition) increases at community colleges, CSU and UC used to pay for more prisons.

People who think people coming out of prison need help to reintegrate themselves, not more punishment in the form of discrimination in employment, housing, education.

People concerned about sending California prisoners to private pens out of state.

People who want to see our public K-12

IF CALIFORNIA BUILDS MORE PRISONS? IF LOS ANGELES HIRES 1,000 MORE POLICE? IF LOS ANGELES BUILDS MORE JAILS?

In the next two months, Gov. Schwarzenegger will try again to build ten thousand or more prison cells and tens of thousands of jail cells. The City of Los Angeles is poised to hire 1,000 more police while cutting budgets for all other city services by 5 percent.

Join advocates for housing, education, environmental justice, civil rights, health care and more to discuss what we can do to stop it from happening

Thursday Jan 18
6:00-9:00 pm

Village Gate Theater
3223 South Hoover Street Los Angeles
(at Jefferson, beside Starbucks)
FREE admission. FREE parking.
323-238-0596

Californians United for a Responsible Budget
No New Jails Coalition
Critical Resistance, Los Angeles
California Prison Moratorium Project

