

AUGUSTIN AGUAYO

WAR RESISTOR AND CONSCIENTIOUS OBJECTOR

Join us in listening to conscientious war objector Augustin Aguayo speak to CSULB students about the reasons why he refused to go on his second tour of duty in Iraq. Aguayo is a family man and former army medic who has made a brave stance, by saying that he will not take part in a war that he believes is unjust. Join us for a discussion about the reasons why the situation in Iraq has gone too far, what it is costing us, and why there seems no end in sight.

MONDAY MARCH 10th
12:00 NOON @ THE SPEAKERS PLATFORM
WITH A GROUP DISCUSSION AND SCREENING OF ARLINGTON WEST
IN THE MULTICULTURAL CENTER FOLLOWING THE EVENT.

SPONSORED BY THE CSULB CAMPUS PROGRESSIVES COLLECTIVE
MEETINGS: MONDAYS @ 3:30 PM IN THE MULTICULTURAL CENTER progressives-discussion@lists.riseup.net