

FREEWAVES

11th Festival of New Media Arts - HOLLYWOULD Eco-Bike Events Fact Sheet

As part of the Hollywood festival, Freewaves is featuring a series of eco and bike friendly activities on the 6500 block of Hollywood Boulevard. Please join us for Eco activities along the street with info tables from environmentally-focused groups, street puppets, man-made parks by Park(ing) day L.A., LA Biodiesel Coop, LA Bike Coalition, The Tree People, Friends of the Los Angeles River, Bikerwaves and the Fender Blender, The Sychons—a Solar Power DJ group. All events are FREE!

STREETWISE MOBILE MEDIA

Saturday, October 11, 2008. 3:00PM – 12:00AM

6500 block of Hollywood Boulevard between Schrader and Wilcox

LACE + LA Forum/Woodbury + Paul Gleason Theater

6:00PM – 12:00AM

Video screenings and installations including: What If?, a combination of stories, animation and docs speculating about our coming new green world; Lights Camera Action, whether trying to change the world or not, performers do it in public; and Value Paks, where customers and the consumed are compared and biases are laid side by side.

6518-6522 Hollywood Blvd., Los Angeles, CA 90028;

323.957.1777 www.welcometolace.org

Bike Valet by LACBC (Los Angeles County Bicycle Coalition) on Hollywood Blvd. near Hudson St.

<http://la-bike.org>

Mobile Media Nightmares

8:00PM – 12:00AM

On Hollywood Blvd.

Reversed surveillance at MacDonald's, ballooned cameras at an altitude of 50-feet, drive by horror projections counteract barcodes, RFID's and ID Targets

Bicycle Bell Ensemble, Bike Cite and Bike Ballet

9:00PM

Hudson St. at Hollywood Blvd. on the north side, opposite LACE

Musical and dance performances on the street!

Second City Studio Theatre

Shows at 8:00PM, 9:30PM, and 11:00PM

Pre-Election Improv Satire

6550 Hollywood Blvd., Los Angeles, CA 90028;

323.464.8542 www.secondcity.com/?id=theatres/losangeles and www.etix.com

Photo Credit: Friends of the Los Angeles River, www.folar.org