

Bank of America:

Back at the trough, leaving America hungry

Bank of America got $25 billion in taxpayer funds to help our ailing recovery, but they failed, spending the money on overseas investments, Washington lobbyists, and corporate jets instead.

And they're still failing to provide healthcare for their employees—passing the estimated $50 million tab on to taxpayers instead.

Now after they failed they're coming back to taxpayers again, asking for even more money from the treasury.

THE WALL STREET JOURNAL.

1/14/09

U.S. Negotiating More Aid for Bank of America

WASHINGTON -- The U.S. government is close to committing billions in additional aid to Bank of America Corp. as the nation's largest bank by assets tries to digest its Jan. 1 acquisition of Merrill Lynch & Co., according to people familiar with the situation.

We can't afford to bailout Bank of America ~~twice.~~

three times

Tell Bank of America what you think.

Add your voice at

www.seiu.org/bankofamerica

Change that Works

Bank of America,
BAD FOR AMERICA