

3rd Annual A.R.E. Conference
RETHINKING SOCIAL JUSTICE IN EDUCATION:
Ser Pueblo, Hacer Pueblo, y Estar Con El Pueblo

Saturday, February 28, 2009
9 am - 5 pm

Santee Education Complex

1921 S. Maple Ave.
Los Angeles, CA 90011

Conference Theme:

The theme of the 3rd Annual ARE conference, "Rethinking Social Justice: Ser Pueblo, Hacer Pueblo, y Estar con el Pueblo," engages with the problematic of how social justice movements can build sustainable communities of resistance. What is the role of educators and students in building community and organization with the people, el pueblo? How can educators build relations of solidarity with el pueblo within/against the colonial State?

Program:

Presentations by Students, Educators & Community Organizers

Keynote Speakers:

Omali Yeshitela,
Chairman,
African People's Socialist Party

Donaldo Macedo,
Professor,
University of Massachusetts

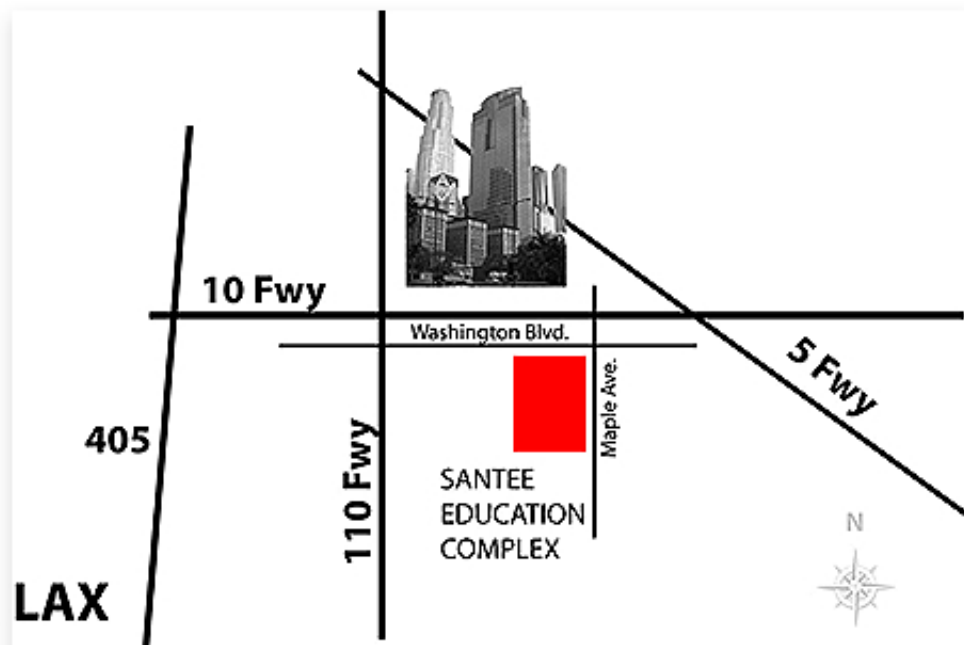

Sakeenah Shabazz,
President,
African Revolution Student Organization

- The Practice of Community Organizing, Learning from Struggles on the Ground
- Youth Organizing Against the Militarization of Schools, Police Brutality, and ICE Raids
- Latin American Teacher Movements, Connecting North and South Struggles
- Freirean, Anti-Imperialist, and Decolonizing Pedagogies, Tools for Community Building
- Decolonizing Research, Tools for Black and Raza Liberation
- and many more...

ENTERTAINMENT:

Hip-Hop, Poetry, Dance, Art

South
Central Neighborhood
Council

www.razaeducationfund.org

