

Join us in a Joyous and Inspiring

Interfaith Service and Celebration

Celebrating the Diversity of Our Communities and Sending a Message of Hope and Solidarity to Immigrants and their Families

Sunday, March 21, 2010

First Congregational Church of Long Beach

241 Cedar Ave.

4:00-6:00 p.m.

Muslims, Jews, Christians, Buddhists, and people from other faith traditions sharing their teachings, prayers, music, dance and food

Spanish and Khmer translation will be available

Free childcare will be provided

(RSVP: call Luz (562)533-4903 or Hal (818) 667-2357 by Friday, March 19th)

For more information contact: Norma Chinchilla, UUCLB chinchil@csulb.edu; Hal Steinberg, CLUE hsteinberg@cluela.org; Rev. Jerry Stinson, UCC jstinson@firstchurchlb.org or Luz Vazquez-Ramos, ICO luz@greaterlongbeachico.org

Sponsors include: The Long Beach Immigrant Rights Coalition, Clergy and Laity United for Economic Justice, the Interfaith Community Organization (ICO), the Social Action Committee of the Unitarian Universalist church, First Congregational Church of Long Beach, Trinity Lutheran, the Social Concerns Committee of the South Coast Interfaith Council, Centro CHA, Centro Shalom, Second Samoan Congregational Church, the Southern California Ecumenical Council and others!