

Orange County Progressive Summit 2011

Building a progressive movement in the OC!

Join us for the second annual Orange County Progressive Summit! Last year's event was a great success, bringing together various individuals and organizations to further establish a strong progressive presence.

Saturday, September 10, 2011
9:00am—5:30pm

Delhi Community Center
505 East Central Ave.
Santa Ana, CA 92707

Pre-Registered Admission: $15 Registration includes continental breakfast and lunch.
Same day Admission: $20

Exhibitor Booth: $50 Organizations with booths will receive 2 passes for admission.

TO REGISTER

Please visit our website below and click on "Register Now":
www.ocprogressivesummit.org

If you have any questions, please email:
info@ocprogressivesummit.org

MISSION STATEMENT

To form a coalition of like-minded groups in Orange County favoring or advocating a progressive stance in politics or society. Our purpose is to share information about our individual organizations, learn from each other, and build a stronger progressive movement.

SPECIAL KEYNOTE SPEAKERS

Jim Hightower

He works to spread the message of progressive populism all across the American grassroots. He frequently appears on TV and radio, bringing a hard-hitting populist viewpoint that rarely gets into the mass media.

Christine Chávez

She has made a lifetime commitment to public service, civil rights, and the labor movement. Christine's work is based on the values passed down to her from her grandfather, Cesar Chavez.

GOLD SPONSORS

Americans United for Separation of Church & State

Women For: Orange County

Democrats of Greater Irvine

United Nations Association—USA: Orange County Chapter

SUMMIT SPONSORS

