

ROUNDTABLE DISCUSSION

“No more generations of our youth, here and all around the world, whose life is over, whose fate has been sealed, who have been condemned to an early death or a life of misery and brutality, whom the system has destined for oppression and oblivion even before they are born. I say no more of that.”

BASics 1:13

Dig into this and other thought provoking quotations by Bob Avakian at a roundtable discussion of the new book, BASics, From the Talks and Writings of Bob Avakian.

The quotations and short essays in this book offer a provocative analysis of the world as it exists today, a revolutionary vision of a new and better world and a roadmap to the difficult but uplifting struggle it will take to get there.

Reading quotations from BASics will be the starting point for lively discussion. Someone familiar with this book and the other writings of Bob Avakian will be present to lead the discussion. (The author will not be present.)
