

10 Years After the PATRIOT Act: Where do we go from here?

This October 26 marks the 10th anniversary of the passage of the PATRIOT Act. Join us for an important panel discussion on how our communities' lives, rights and liberties have been impacted in the post September 11th world and what you can do about it. Panelists include:

- Professor Hiroshi Motomura, UCLA School of Law
- Ameena Qazi, Deputy Executive Director of the Council of American-Islamic Relations of Los Angeles
- George Friday, National Field Director of the Bill of Rights Defense Committee
- Ahilan Arulanantham, Deputy Legal Director of the ACLU of Southern California
- Moderated by Shakeel Syed, Executive Director of the Islamic Shura Council of Southern California

Wednesday, October 26, 6:00 to 8:00 pm

ACLU of Southern California

1313 West 8th Street, Los Angeles, CA 90017

Light Refreshments and Snacks Will Be Served

Please RSVP to (213) 977-5293

RSVPs requested, but all are welcome to attend.

Sponsors include the ACLU of Southern California, Bill of Rights Defense Committee (BORDC), Council on American-Islamic Relations of Los Angeles, Islamic Shura Council of Southern California, American Friends Service Committee, Asian Pacific American Legal Center, California Immigrant Policy Center, Coalition for Humane Immigrant Rights of Los Angeles, CODEPINK LA, Interfaith Communities United for Justice and Peace, Jewish Voice for Peace, LA Jews for Peace, Nikkei for Civil Rights & Redress, National Lawyers Guild, Progressive Jewish Alliance & Jewish Funds for Justice, Progressive Christians Uniting, South Asian Network and many others.