Meeting ID: 957 6291 3990 - Passcode: 191966

Rachel Laser is the President and CEO of our national organization. She is a lawyer, advocate and strategist who has dedicated her career to making our country more inclusive and has a proven track record of uniting both faith and secular leaders and advocacy organizations to make tangible progress on some of the most important issues of our time. No one understands the work of Americans United better from the legal perspective to the policy perspective.

Rachel will join us and discuss what the organization is doing on a variety of fronts with particular emphasis on the organization's approach to working with the Biden administration. She will also provide us with updates on the Do No Harm Act, racial equity and religious freedom, public schools and the courts.
