Sadaf has spent most of her career on policy and grassroots organizing and was a legislative assistant for former Congressman Keith Ellison. Most recently, Sadaf was the Director of Special Projects at the Office of Minnesota Attorney General, where she was in charge of creating spaces for community members and organizations, elected officials, and academics to come together to find solutions to issues that impact a person's ability to afford their lives and live with dignity and respect.

Sadaf received her M.A. degree in International Relations and Diplomacy from SOAS, University of London, and her Bachelor's in International Business and Political Science from the University of St. Thomas in Minnesota. She recently moved to Orange County from Minneapolis, Minnesota.

Please join us to hear what Planned Parenthood is doing and what are the expectations of Roe v. Wade both nationally and here in California.

Irvine Ranch Water District makes its facilities available for use by residents and non-profit organizations merely as a public service, but does not, by allowing this use, endorse or support the purpose of the event or its sponsor.
