

Impact of Church/State Separation on the LGBTQ+ Community

Daniel Villarreal of LGBTQ Nation

Saturday, September 20th at 3:30pm

Zoom Registration:

After registering, you will receive a confirmation email with information about joining the meeting.

Please join us for a talk by Daniel Villarreal on how church state separation impacts the LGBTQ+ community. He will also talk about good news for the community (yes, there is some good news!)

Daniel Villarreal is a long time, award-winning journalist and editor. He has written for a wide variety of media, including NBC News, Newsweek, Vox, Slate, Vice News, The Seattle Stranger, The Dallas Voice and numerous LGBTQ+ publications.

He has spoken at SXSW, Creating Change, Netroots Nation, GaymerX, and is a graduate of GLAAD's Voices of Color program and of the Poynter Institute's 2024 Power of Diverse Voices seminar. He is also the founder of QueerBomb Dallas, an annual non-corporate Pride event; CinéWilde, the nation's longest running monthly LGBTQ film series.

LGBTQ NATION